For the Woman Friend—
A Pretty Bit of Neckwear

Every woman loves to have plenty of these beauty-things. You know just what would be becoming to her, and there is so much daintiness and effectiveness to a Neckwear Gift. The cost is only from 50c to a few dollars.

A Purse

Is what many a woman is putting off buying in the hopes that she will receive one for Christmas. There are the patent leather and morocco vanity cases, bags and purses, and then the velvet and beaded bags. They range in price from $1 to $35.

Of Ribbon

May be fashioned such things pleasing to the feminine fancy as fancy garters, coat hangers, and vanity bags. You will find here a complete stock of ribbons necessary for these dainty gifts. There are also the new Roman striped ribbons for sashes and the little touches to one's costume.

Letters
From Her

Are much more apt to come your way, if a desk set adorns her writing table on Christmas morning. Letter writing will be fun for her as she uses her dainty set, made from novel patterns of cretonne or silk, protected by celluloid.

She will waste no time hunting for writing materials that are lacking. The sets are complete in every detail, containing blotter pad, ink well, pen tray, paper knife, letter holder, blotter and calendar. The sets range in price from $9 to $12.50. Little enough to pay for so handsome a Christmas gift.

The more conventional sets in brass, which add dignity to any writing desk, are priced from $15 to $19. Four separate pieces, among which are ink wells, letter clips, letter openers, calendars and letter holders are priced from $7.75 to $4.

Having supplied Her with writing material for Her desk, don't forget that She can't carry the desk set with her; a Conklin pen for Her purse will be greatly appreciated—every woman needs a Conklin.

Fill your Fountain Pen with Stafford's Ink and forget it.

No fussing with your fountain pen when it's loaded with brilliant Stafford's Fountain Pen Ink.

A uniform, steady flow always on tap.

It never sticks, gums or clogs the pen-point or barrel.

The secret is in the chemical formula which has made Stafford's famous as

"The Ink that Absorbs Moisture from the Air."

Your fountain pen is a delicately adjusted instrument. Most inks are too heavy, too syrupy to flow smoothly through the point escapement. Stafford's Fountain Pen Ink is made for just that particular purpose. Most every stationer sells it.
